

Mississippi Special Education Teacher Shortage

70,329

students with disabilities currently enrolled in Mississippi public schools

9

preparation programs in Mississippi currently offer a degree in special education

65

students graduated from special education teacher preparation programs in 2019

4,355

currently teaching special education who are fully licensed

221

Approximate vacancies in special education for fully certified teachers

16,544

total number of people currently licensed to teach special education in Mississippi